

Course Information:

Scheduling

- This residential course takes place in 2 blocks of 5 days over two consecutive weeks:
28th August - 1st September and
4th September - 8th September

Class Size

- The group will have a maximum of 15 participants per facilitator. This is considered best practice and most conducive to participative learning.

Teaching Style

- The course uses an Adult Education methodology. Participants are encouraged to critically reflect on and engage with the course content through group, plenary and individual exercises and methods.

Further supports

- It is required that all participants be paired with a support person/mentor from their sponsor or host community. The accompanying role of this person is crucial to process of inculturation. The support person/mentor must be available to attend on the last day of the programme (Friday 8th September). Participants will also have an opportunity to dialogue with others who have completed the course and who will share on their experience of ministry in Ireland. The course provides clear signposting to additional resources relevant to each area of content as required throughout the course (for example support agencies for mental health issues, social welfare issues, housing, health and employment supports and Catholic Education).

Course Location

- The course takes place in An Tobar, Spiritan Retreat & Spirituality Centre, Ardbraccan, Navan, Co. Meath. C15 T884.
- This attractive venue offers the participants an opportunity to engage fully with the programme in a reflective and peaceful context. (see www.antobar.ie)

Course Fees

- The course fee is €1,500 per participant. This covers full tuition, full board, NBSCCCI certification, and course materials. Participants are responsible for their own transport arrangements. All participants must be approved by their sponsoring bishop or host congregation.
- Please Note: A working knowledge of both written and spoken English is required in order to benefit from and participate fully in the course.

Apply before 30th June 2023

- The course requires a minimum of 10 participants. In the event that fewer than 10 people apply the course will not proceed.
- For an on-Line Application Form or further information please contact:

Course Co-ordinator:
Ronan Barry,
Kimmage Manor,
Whitehall Road, Dublin D12P5YP
Email: smi@spiritan.ie
Tel: +353 (01) 499 7622

Course Facilitators:

Frank Naughton

Facilitator with Partners in Training for Transformation. Frank facilitates the input on acculturation, communication and collaboration.

Fr Willie Purcell

National Co-ordinator of Vocations Ireland, he is a member of the Immigrant Council of the Bishops Conference. Fr Willie facilitates the input on ministry in Ireland.

Patricia Carroll

Patricia is the Director Mission and Ministry office in Dublin Archdiocese. Patricia has also recently published a book entitled Becoming a Pastoral Parish Council: How to make your PPC really useful for the twenty-first century.

Audry Deane

Consultant and Policy Analyst. Audry facilitates the input on the historical, economic and social introduction to Ireland.

Jane Ferguson

Safeguarding Co-ordinator, Jane facilitates the certified two day training programme from the National Board of Safeguarding of Children in the Catholic Church.

Sean Goan

Seán is a well-known contributor to courses and retreats on biblical topics. Sean is a co-founder and lead contributor to tarsusscriptureschool.ie.

Other support will be offered by the Spiritan Community at An Tobar.

Spiritan Mission Ireland

House 3
Kimmage Manor
Whitehall Road
Dublin
D12 P5YP
Ireland

T: 01 499 7622
E: smi@spiritan.ie
W: www.spiritan.ie

Ronan Barry,
Co-ordinator

Spiritan Mission Ireland is an initiative of the Irish Province of the Congregation of the Holy Spirit.

Orientation Course for Incoming
Pastoral Ministry
Workers
Autumn 2023

Spiritan Mission Ireland
An Tobar, Ardbraccan, Navan, Co. Meath

Orientation Course for Incoming Pastoral Ministry Workers

Spiritan Mission Ireland, has designed a tailormade course aimed at incoming pastoral ministry workers. This course seeks to support the integration and orientation process of incoming pastoral workers and to prepare them for ministry in parishes and congregational settings. The course is fully residential and takes place in the Spiritan Retreat and Spirituality Centre in Ardbracan, Navan Co Meath. This beautiful setting affords the participants the opportunity to learn together in a relaxed community atmosphere where there will be opportunity for personal and communal prayer and the celebration of the Eucharist.

Learning Objectives:

On completion of the course participants will have received a holistic introduction into life in Ireland which will help them adjust to their new home, feel confident in fulfilling their pastoral role and ensure that their ministry meets the needs of those they serve. Participants will:

- Gain insights and understanding of approaches to ministry in Ireland
- Explore issues related to liturgy and spirituality in the context of pastoral ministry in Ireland
- Explore various themes of inter and cross-cultural communication (change, conflict, authority, leadership, listening, collaboration and personal wellbeing)
- Have received a broad overview of the socioeconomic, political, cultural landscape and history of Ireland
- Be awarded a certificate of training from the National Board of Safeguarding of Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland and be fully compliant with the protocol for safeguarding training for people in ministry in Ireland

Themes covered on the course:

Acculturation, communication and collaboration

- Coping with change and transition issues.
- Understanding new contexts, responsibilities and relationships.
- Dealing with cultural nuances, attitudes, norms and behaviours.
- Developing and nurturing positive, authentic relationships.
- Awareness and ability to negotiate power dynamics, authority.
- Resilience, well-being, self-care and conflict resolution.

Ministry in Ireland

- Structure of the Catholic Church, Bishops' Conference, Association of Missionaries and Religious in Ireland, diocesan and parish settings.
- Introduction to key liturgical policies and practices from the Bishops' Conference in Ireland related to ministry in Ireland.
- Understanding responsibilities and duties of roles in both parish and congregational settings.
- Scriptural reflection on Mission in Ireland today.

Ministry in Action

- The role of incoming pastoral ministry workers.
- Day to day pastoral work, making the link between the Church's teaching and everyday life.
- How to connect authentically with congregations, communities and individuals.
- The role of women in the Church.
- Synodality and Ministry in Ireland.

Economic & social introduction to Ireland

- Critical social challenges: poverty, exclusion, homelessness, inequalities of access to healthcare, education, work and housing.
- Brief introduction to taxation and Irish social welfare system and entitlements.
- How to access information.

Safeguarding

- A certified 2-day training from the National Board of Safeguarding of Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland is included which ensures that participants are in compliance with the safeguarding protocol for those working in pastoral ministry.

